

Adagiato™ Seating

Kimball® Office

Completely engaged.

With its accommodating design, Adagiato has a knack for fitting in. It looks confident in contemporary, minimalist interiors as well as transitional, multi-dimensional environments. Adagiato's clean lines, exceptional comfort, and superior quality invite frequent use in both private and public spaces. Like all Kimball Office furniture, Adagiato emphasizes impeccable materials and craftsmanship for timeless appeal and enduring value.

- Arching armrests run the depth of the chair and feature a blended elliptical surface to support the entire arm.
- An ample seat allows sitters to shift position easily.
- Adagiato exceeds ANSI/BIFMA testing standards and carries the Kimball Office Lifetime Warranty.
- Eco-friendly, Adagiato is GREENGUARD® certified for improved indoor air quality.

Beauty of wood: Full of character and nuance, every element of Adagiato's design – such as the visible end grain – expresses care and craftsmanship.

Rich in detail: Subtle metal fasteners, soft upholsteries, and lustrous wood finishes provide textural contrast.

Union of textures: Tubular steel legs merge with a shield-like back of rotary-cut beech.

Superbly executed.

Adagiato's visual appeal and performance stand out from every angle.

The confluence of steel, wood and fabric elements creates a chair as pleasant to look at as it is to sit in. Tightly tailored cushions follow the chair's sculptural contours. Generous in scale, Adagiato has a suspended seat for extra comfort and increased back pitch for extra support.

- Three back styles are available: wood, half height back cushion, full height back cushion.
- A full spectrum of wood finishes, ranging from rich deep shades to warm light tones, is offered.
- Upholstery options include all Kimball Office fabrics and leathers, Alliance Program upholsteries, as well as COMs and COLs. Contrasting seat and back upholstery is available.
- Finish choices for the steel legs and undercarriage are cinder, platinum metallic, and satin nickel metallic.

Thoughtfully designed.

Woods that warm. Upholstery that comforts. Metal that enlivens.

The Adagiato guest chair, designed by David Allan Pessa, embodies layers of texture that create inspiring environments with depth and character.

The hallmarks of Kimball Office furniture.
